WITHOUT FRONTIERS

Aquaculture without Frontiers

- AwF is a global charity dedicated to the development of sustainable aquaculture for poverty alleviation by improving rural livelihoods.
- AwF devotes its resources to aquaculture, but it does not offer support in isolation, rather it interacts with many rural and coastal development organizations dedicated to alleviating extreme poverty and hunger.
- AwF currently draws on the experience of more than 302 respected volunteer aquaculture professionals from over 20 countries.

AwF is unique in directing all of its charitable contributions to the benefit of the poor. All AwF activities are carried out through the voluntary contributions of time by the Board of Directors and volunteers.

"All the sponsors, except the special local rate buyers would receive specific acknowledgement during the charity evening and an acknowledgement on the AwF website donor section"
